any of these instances.
The German emperor is now reported to be suffering from inflammation of the lungs.

From Petrograd comes an official statement from the Russian general staff that the German attempts in Russian Poland had been repulsed and that the Germans are in retreat.

Sept. 29.—Furious fighting continues in Northern France, where the allied French and British armies are at grips with the German forces in what is characterized as the crucial action of the battle of the Aisne.
Beyond admitting this fact, the statements are vague.

"One sentence, 'there is no change in the situation,' epitomizes the official reports from London, Paris and Berlin.

A very rigorous censorship has evidently been imposed at virtually all points, particularly in London, regarding the operations at the front as very little news is being permitted to come through the war officials.
The doubtless fearing, first, to raise the hopes of the people without some definite result having been attained, and secondly, the publication of even the smallest details of the operations might be of aid to the Germans.

A despatch from Constantinople says that the Dardanelles have been closed to navigation.

The Austrian government has confiscated the Canadian Pacific railway Company's securities and deposits in Vienna, according to report, as well as the company's observation cars running on Austrian railroads.
This is the result, it is said, of a refusal of the company to pay the dividends of Austrian shareholders.
Indicate that the company is not satisfied with the situation at the rapid increase in grain prices in Austria is causing anxiety in official circles. Farmers are holding the supplies for higher prices and the government proposes to fix a maximum price for this commodity.

Sept. 30.—While the French and British official announcements indicate satisfaction with the situation at the front, a battle report in France and confidence in the outcome, an unofficial report from Paris declares that the German right has broken and is being pursued by the allies. This report also declares that the Germans have been surrounded in the Somme department and that Peronne has been recaptured.

The official press bureau at London, while making no objection to the publication of these reports, declined to take any responsibility for the correctness of the news.

A narrative from Field Marshal John French's headquarters, issued at London, the official press bureau, gives the reason for the long drawn out battle, which has now lasted eighteen days. "The extent of the military operations," it says, "is so great as to render slow and deliberate efforts to manoeuvre and march around the flank in order to escape the costly losses of a frontal attack against heavily fortified positions." This refers to the fierce combat operations of the allies' left in and endeavor to outflank the German right wing under General Von Kluck.
In these operations, French and English, heavily reinforced, have been engaged for several days and the encounters at times are reported to have been unprecedented.

Chinese troops have blown up the railroad bridge at Tayu-Ho, six miles west of Wei-Hsien, which has also been occupied by the Japanese, and are thus apparently opposing military operations in Shan Tung province.

C.P.R. TO PROVIDE WORK FOR SEVERAL THOUSAND IN WEST

At the Canadian Pacific offices Friday morning it was learned that orders have been issued to start up a large number of ballast pits on Monday next and other work which will provide employment for between 3,000 and 4,000 men throughout the west. Provided the weather will permit, these men will be able to work until nearly the end of November.
It is gathered that the object the company has in mind is to alleviate conditions by providing work for the unemployed in the west, and enable them to supplement their savings for the winter. Details are not available but the work undertaken are in various parts of the Canadian Pacific railway lines between Winnipeg and Vancouver. In addition to the large ballasting operations work on the right-of-way, laying side and main improvements and telerails, are is understood, part of the programme.

Town Topics

H. J. Montgomery made a business trip to the Capital on Monday.

Dr. H. G. Hoare went to Edmonton on Monday on professional business.

Miss Timlick, of the telephone department, who has been spending her vacation with friends at the coast, returned home on Monday evening.

Knock off those little luxuries and give the wherewithal to the Wetaski-win Patriotic Fund, and keep on doing it until the practice becomes a habit.

C. H. Swanson was taken down with pneumonia last week. His friends are pleased to learn that he is convalescing as rapidly as can be expected.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are giving a chicken supper in the Empress Theatre building on Saturday evening of this week at six o'clock.

The second annual convention of the teachers of the Stettler Inspectorate will be held in the Public School, Stettler, on Thursday and Friday, October 8 and 9.

A Rummage sale will be held by the Ladies' Auxiliary of Immanuel church on Saturday, October 3, on Geo. L. Owen's vacant lot, corner of Railway street east and Pearce street.

Miss S. O. Campbell of Elbow, Sask., who has been visiting friends here, left for her home on Tuesday evening. She was accompanied by Mrs. W. C. Coupland, who will be absent a month.

Louis Klafert, who has been residing at Vancouver for several years, arrived in the city on Monday to renew acquaintances and look after some business affairs. He says business is exceptionally quiet all along the coast.

A meeting of the Ladies' Auxilary of Immanuel church will be held at the home of Mrs. C. E. Compton, on Tuesday evening, October 6, at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to attend.

R. R. Randolph, Chas. Brown and George Thompson were charged on Monday before the Justice of the Peace with shooting partridge out of season, and also shooting on Sunday. They pleaded not guilty and the case was adjourned for a week.

Joe Ellison, who went to Vancouver with the Wetaskiwin boys as a member of the 101st contingent, of Edmonton, returned home last week Joe's heart was so much broken, he could not pass the rigid examination of the five doctors who examined him at Valcartier.

The many friends of Chas. H. Clin M.P., regret to learn that he is still confined to his room, and not making the recovery they would like to see. It is very doubtful if he will be able to attend the sittings of the court, which is called on Wednesday next.

Mrs. George Coupland of Cremona, Ont., arrived in the city a few days ago on a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Coupland. This is her first visit to this part of the country and she greatly enjoyed her trip with the fine crops and excellent opportunities this district offers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Edmunds left on Tuesday morning for Salt Lake City where they expect to make their future home. Mr. Edmunds will be greatly missed in musical circles and amateur theatrical performances, as he is a comedian of considerable ability. Their many friends here are wishing them all success in their new home.

H. A. Matthews, who has been accountant at the Wetaskiwin branch of the Merchants' Bank for some time, left on Tuesday morning for Lacombe, where he will assume similar duties. Mr. Carroll of the Lacombe branch will succeed Mr. Mathews. The host of friends of Mr.
Matthews regret his departure, but all join in wishing him rapid advancement, and hope in the near future to hear that he has been given a managership.

This is the time of year when you hear the taxpayers kicking against the men who manage the city affairs and are supposed to be responsible for the size of the tax bill. But many of those who do the most kicking would never think of giving their services in the council nor yet sufficient interest themselves to try and bring the calibre of the council up to their ideals. These fault finders should remember that the municipal representatives are serving at the very small remuneration and in most cases are doing the town's work at a loss to themselves.

No wonder the citizens of Wetaski-win are jubilant. The announcement of 368,000 cubic feet of gas every twenty-four hours in No. 2 well, will be a pleasure of 225 lbs to the square inch practically solves the fuel problem for the city. And the test was made under the well had been un-capped for three hours. The gas pipe is laid to the C.P.R. track on the east side, and as soon as the engi-

SHOW COMING

Reputation is a great thing, but once made it cannot be neglected and left to stand upon its laurels. It must be carefully nurtured.

Richards & Fringe's Famous Georgia Mastris made their reputation years ago, thirty to be exact, and that reputation has been most really guarded ever since. It seems as though the same of perfection must have been reached by them years ago, but each season they bring a still better show.

The press in the territory where they have appeared this season is loud in their praise, and when these talented comedians, FRINGS and CARLSON, who have been in the rolling at the Angus Theatre on Wednesday, October 7, we may expect to sit up and take notice.

They will arrive in the city at morning and prompt at the hour of noon will parade the principal streets and Simpson's Challenge band will give one of their splendid concerts.

ALBERTA'S COAL RESOURCES

Alberta's coal reserves contain a larger tonnage than all the rest of Canada. Its actual and probable resources are estimated at 1,075,841, 000,000 tons. It would require the services of 4,000,000 men, working during five tons a day for 360 working days a year, about 179 years to mine the coal available in this province. The rest of Canada, including the Yukon, the Northwest Territories, and the Arctic Islands, contains 165,841,910,000 tons.

The coal resources of this province of Alberta are 14 times larger than the reserves of British Columbia, 18 times greater than Saskatchewan and 119 times more than Nova Scotia, the largest producing province in the Dominion. The Edmonton district has 77,184 square miles of the total surface area of the Dominion of Canada, which is estimated at 102,168 square miles.

WAS BOTHERED WITH BILIOUSNESS
AND SOUR STOMACH
FOR 20 YEARS

Sour Stomach and Biliousness are caused by a sluggish Liver, for when it is not working properly, it holds back the bile, which is so essential to promote the movement of the bowels, and the bile gets into the blood instead of passing through the usual channel, thus causing many stomach and bowel troubles.
Mr. Charles Pettit, 2594 Richmond Street, London, Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to write you a few lines in regard to your Little Liver Pills. I have been bothered with Biliousness and Sour Stomach for twenty years until a year ago I started to use Laxa-Liver Pills, and I have not been bothered since. I wish to let it be known to all those who suffer as I did." Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25 cents per box or 5 boxes for $1.00. For sale at all dealers or mailed direct under receipt of the T. T. Milburn Co.,

PREMIER WHITNEY OF
ONTARIO IS DEAD

Toronto, Sept. 25.—The announcement of the death of Premier Sir James Whitney came as a shock to the ministers and the staff at the parliament buildings at 12:30 today, and spread like wild-fire throughout the city. For several days there was thought to be considerable improvement in the premier's condition.
Sir James Whitney, after his great effort at the Massey Hall meeting, prior to the provincial election, was warned by the doctors of his health.
Death was due to cerebral hemorrhage, due to hardening of the arteries.
The end was as much of a shock to the physician's as it was to the members of Sir James' family. The premier had been in bed; just before 12 o'clock the nurse noticed a sudden change. Lady Whitney and Miss Whitney were summoned, and Dr.
Hamilton notified. Sir James opened his eyes and sat up at his wife and daughter. He then lapsed into unconsciousness. Dr. Hamilton rushed to the house, but it was too late.
Sir James had passed beyond medical aid.

No Chance for a Kick

When you buy your Lumber and Building Materials here. Looking backward over the past you may recall instances of dissatisfaction with the quality of the Lumber and Building Material which you bought.

If this is so, it should certainly interest you to know that we have a stock from which you can get the kind of material that suits you, at prices no greater, and often less, than you will have to pay for unsatisfactory stuff at other places.

When we sell you Lumber or Building Material, we expect you to come again. This being the case, why shouldn't we do all we can to please you in quality, price and treatment?

The fact that buyers almost invariably come back after once buying here is strong evidence that we give them "no chance to kick."

SHOULD SMALL FAIRS BE

'OPEN TO THE WORLD'

The idea appears to be growing that it is folly for the small fair to throw its entry list open to the world, and there is without doubt a good deal to be said against the wide open idea as at present, more particularly from a financial standpoint. The lack of competition and consequently entry money is what tends perhaps more than anything to put the small fair behind. Exhibitors from a distance do not bring stuff that is not pretty sure to take a prize and the local man is reluctant, unless he owns something particularly good, to go up against what might be termed the professional exhibitor. Exhibitors of pure bred stock get to know whether there is likely to be competition or not and in many cases all the judges has to do is to mark down their numbers in the prize columns, there being nothing else entered to make a competition. On the other hand, to shut out outside exhibitors cannot help but lessen the educative value of the small fair and take away the opportunity for local stockmen to either buy pure bred stuff that they have personally inspected or learn where it can be obtained satisfactorily when wanted. The question is one which will stand considerable study and discussion before it would be advisable to make a change and it is to be hoped that the members of the local society will give the matter sufficient thought before the annual meeting to be prepared to throw the matter out in a manner calculated to result in the most possible good to the district, irrespective of the individual—Leduc Representative.

COMET VISIBLE

Considerable interest is being taken in the comet now visible any bright starlight night between 9 and 10 o'clock. It may be seen in the northern sky, directly below the Big Dipper, and on a line projected backwards from the "pointer" of the Dipper and the Pole star.

This is Delevan's comet, which is rapidly approaching the earth at the rate of 1,215,364 miles per day. It is at the present time becoming clearer and clearer every night, and on October 1, when it reaches its greatest brightness, will be 137,000,000 miles from the earth.

The astral wanderer was discovered by Paul T. Delevan, astronomer of the Los Plata Observatory, Argentine republic, on December 17, 1913. It was then 370,000,000 miles from the sun and was to be seen quite clearly with a small telescope, indicating its great size.

At the time of discovery the comet had no tail, but as it neared the sun the tail developed until it now has one of extraordinary length. A short time after its discovery it disappeared from sight behind the sun and only a few months ago came into view.

On July 24, 1914, by calculation, it was discovered to be 226,000,000 miles from the earth and rapidly coming nearer.

The comet is of great size and will appear as a bright tailed star in the heavens.

While some business dislocation has resulted from the European war, the merchants in Wetaskiwin and district are more optimistic than a month ago. The district generally is in an excellent condition. Large crops are reported and the price of grain, hay and livestock are higher than usual. There is a general feeling throughout Alberta that the war will help rather than hinder the Province in a commercial way.

WHY RUSSIA IS ## NOT DANGEROUS

In answer to the incessant note of alarm concerning future trouble with Russia when the present war is over, H. G. Wells has written a strong article giving his reason for seeing nothing to fear from that quarter. It is the writer's opinion that extreme ignorance of Russian realities has given rise to this exaggerated belief. It is his belief that Russia is not so purposeful as she is supposed to be, and that it is a misconception to imagine that Pan-Slavism could ever rise to the height of national pride and ambition that led the German emperor to become unbearable.

"Russia is not only the vastest country in the world, but she is the latest; she is incapable of that tremendous unification. Not for two centuries yet, if ever, will it be necessary for a reasonable united western Europe to trouble itself, once Prussianism has been disposed of about the risk of reticent aggression from the east," declares Mr. Wells, and proceeds to give an outline of Russia's characteristics proving his assumptions. He explains that in bulk the great empire is barbaric and between eighty and ninety per cent of her population is still living on the level of the prehistoric races. Illiterate, superstitious, religious in the most primitive fashion, incapable of shrewdness in commercial life, and only the cunning of the poor peasant against the enterprise of the educated races, this great bulk represents the masses of Russia. The portion of the population which in any way corresponds with western civilization is a few millions of actively intelligent people, officials for the most part in the great government machine. At the head of all this is the Czar. Such a structure must, in the author's reasoning, follow laws of its own and have a destiny all its own.

Referring to the states involved with Russia, Finland is pronounced highly civilized in comparison with its ruling power, while Poland is placed on a lower plane, and the Russian Jewish provinces are distinctly alien. There is no unity whatever in this vast empire, the common people are denied education and free thought is repressed. While, as Mr. Wells points out, this anomalous state is a bad one, from the standpoint of a message to the world, it is not to be compared with Prussianism.

And while Russia is so dominant with this Russian idea she can neither be dangerous to her western neighbors nor to the far off countries of India or China. The argument is that "while Russia has the will to suppress the world she will never have the power; and when she has the power she will cease to have the will." If Russia were ever to become powerful enough to overcome one of the highly civilized countries to her west, she would have to abandon her present methods, educate her people, train them to be animated, and possessed of individual initiative and in short to change the people and the idea of the nation. And even then there is no prestige of similarity to be found in this Russia and these Russians and the Germans whose methods it is feared she may emulate—methods of militarism that were slowly strangling civilization.

"The balance of power in the Balkans, that is to say, incessant intrigue between Austria and Russia, has arrested the civilization of southeastern Europe for a century. Let it topple. An unchallenged Russia will be a wholesome check, and no great danger, for the new greater Serbia and the new greater Roumania and the enlarged and restored Bulgaria this war renders possible."

The only country which is really threatened by Russia is Sweden, in the author's mind. Sweden is very accessible by Russia and is rich in coal, and is in need of a guarantee from the dominating powers. Beyond that I see no danger to civilization in Russia anywhere—at least no danger so considerable as the Kaiser-Krupp power we fight to a finish. This war, even if it brings us the most success, will leave Russia face to face with a united and chastened Germany. For it must be remembered that the downfall of Prussianism and the break-up of the Austro-Hungarian empire will leave German Germany not smaller but larger than she is now. Where in all the world is this danger from Russia?

"The ironmonger's assistant," said the ironmonger, "indicating a devious way." "She sent her wringer here to be repaired. I promised it to her for this week, but couldn't keep my promise. Now she wants me to pay a charge, and she says she wants me to pay the laundry bill for the clothes." The ironmonger breathed heavily. "But that's not all. Her husband dined out on a wash-day—that wasn't a wash-day?" "Understand?" "I ought to pay for his dinner. No, she doesn't ask for anything else. And they call 'em the weaker sex.'"

TOLSTOY'S VISION

(The following remarkable dream prophecy was published by Countess Nastasia Tolstoy in the "Semi-Monthly Magazine" last year.

"I cannot call it a dream, because I have often seen it while I have been sitting at my writing table. On other occasions it has appeared to me at twilight, before my dinner table."

"Question: 'Is it a vision?'
"Something of that order, but very clear. So clear that I could draw a picture of all that transpired."

"This is the revelation of events of a universal character which must shortly come to pass. Their spiritual outlines are now before my eyes."

"I see floating upon the sea of human fate the huge silhouette of a nude woman. She is with her beauty, her poise, her smile, and her jewels—a super-Venus. Nations rush madly after her, each of them eager to attract her especially. But, she, like an eternal courtesan, flirts with them all. In her hair ornaments of diamonds and rubies is engraved her name, 'Commercialism.' And, alluring and bewitching as she seems, destruction and agony follow in her wake. Her breath reeks of sordid transactions, her voice is metallic character like gold, and her look of greed as so much poison to the nations who fall victims to her charms."

"And behold, she has three torches of universal corruption in her hand. The first torch represents the flame of war, that the beautiful courtesan carries from city and country to country. Patriotism answers with flashes of honest flame, but the end is the ruin of peace and merriment."

"The second torch bears the flame of Bigotry and Hypocrisy. It lights the lamps only in temples and on the altars of sacred institutions. It carries the seed of falsity and fanaticism. It kindles the minds that are still in cradles and follows them to their graves."

"The third torch is that of the Law, that dangerous foundation of all unauthentic traditions, which first does its fatal work in the family, then sweeps through the world of literature, art and statesmanship."

"The great conflagration will start about 1915, set by the torch of the first arm in the countries of South-eastern Europe. It will develop into a destructive calamity in 1918. In that year I see all Europe in flames and bleeding. I hear the lamentations of huge battles. But, about the year 1918 a strange figure from the north—a new Napoleon—enters the stage of the bloody drama. He is a man of little militaristic training, a writer or a journalist, but in his hands most of Europe will remain until 1925. The end of that calamity will form a new political era for the old world. There will be new empires and kingdoms, but the world will form a federation of the United States of Nations. There will remain only four great giants—the Anglo-Saxons, the Latins, the Slavs and the Mongolians."

"After the year 1925 I see a change in religious sentiments. The second torch of the courtesan has brought about the fall of the Church. The ethical idea has almost vanished. Humanity is without moral feeling. But then a great reformer arises. He will clear the world of the relics of monotheism and lay the cornerstone of the temple of pantheism. God, soul, spirit, and immortality will be molten in a new furnace, and I see the peaceful beginning of a new ethical era. The man determined to this mission is a Mongolian-Slav. He is already walking on the earth—a man of active aims. He himself does not realize the mission assigned to him by a superior power."

"And behold, the flame of the third torch, which has already begun to destroy our family relations, is in place of the polygamy and monogamy of today there will come a polygamy—a relation of the sexes based fundamentally on the poetic conception of life."

"And I see the nations growing wiser and realizing that the alluring woman of their destinies is, after all, nothing but an illusion. There will be a time when the world will have no use for armies, hypocritical religions, and degenerate kings. In place of the polygamy and monogamy of today there will come a polygamy—a relation of the sexes based fundamentally on the poetic conception of life."

(Translated from a German memorandum found in the Kaiser's waste-paper basket. The original has been presented to the British Museum by the author, John Kendrick Bunge).

Oh Me!
And likewise!!!!

Sit still, my curls, while I orate Me, I, Myself, the Throne, the State I am the earth, the moon, the sun All rolled in one.

To think I'm Me!

And blink like stars up in the sky
To think I'm I—

And shrink in terror like a frightened elf

To realize that I'm Myself Ye blithering slaves beneath my iron heel

What know thee of the thing I feel Didst ever wake at dead of night

And stand in awe of this own might?

It took six days to make the land, and sea, But centuries were passed in making Me.

The universe? An easy task! but I—

Had a Bad Attack of Diarrhoea and Vomiting

Had the Doctor Eleven Times

BUT DR. FOWLER'S EXTRACT OF WILD SWEETWERT FINALLY CURED

Mrs. Wesley Pringle, Robin, Ont., writes:—"It is with great pleasure that I can recommend Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Sweetwort. When our little boy was three years old, he had the worst attack of diarrhoea and vomiting I ever saw. We called in our doctor, and he came eleven times during the week, morning until Saturday night, but still no change. We expected each moment to be the last of his suffering, as the doctor said he could do nothing more. Dr. Pringle was going on town on Saturday night, and was advised to try your great and wonderful medicine. He got a bottle and about 9 o'clock the first dose was given, and was kept up, as directed, and when the doctor came on Sunday, he said 'What a wonderful change; why your little boy is going to get better.' Then I told him what we had been giving him, and he said, 'Keep right on, he is doing well.' I often think as I look at my boy, growing to be a man, what great thanks I owe to Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Sweetwort."

"Dr. Fowler's" has been on the market for close on seventy years, and has been known from one end of Canada to the other as a certain cure for all bowel complaints.

When you ask for "Dr. Fowler's" be sure you get it, as any substitute is liable to be dangerous to your health.

INCREASING LIVE STOCK PRODUCTION

The outbreak of the war in Europe and the consequent demand which is naturally to be expected for increased exports of meats, little Canada in a very much denuded condition as regards live stock.

As a result of the removal of the American tariff on Canadian heavy export trade developed to the south. In some districts in eastern Canada, nearly everything has been shipped out of the country, except dairy cows. This export trade, together with many farmers selling their calves for veal, can have but one result in Canada, viz: a greater scarcity of meat than at present exists, even in a normal market.

The meat industry in Canada should not be allowed to dwindle—rather, the production of hogs, cattle and sheep on Canadian farms should be greatly increased. To obtain this increase does not mean that farmers should devote the whole of their attention to live stock. The majority of farmers will admit that with very little extra effort and expense they could increase by several head the live stock on their farms without in any way interfering with their present system of farming.

From reports to the Commission of Conservation, present conditions indicate a world-wide scarcity of live stock, with little likelihood of an over-crowded market for many years to come. The opportunity for Canadian farmers is therefore apparent. To take advantage of this, farmers should save their heifer calves to produce more cattle, while the others may be turned off, not as veal, but as beef.

Expert stockmen advise that there are good times ahead for those raising sheep. The high price of mutton and of wool and the comparative ease with which a flock of sheep may be maintained upon land which is otherwise unsuitable for agriculture, should suggest a great increase in the number of sheep raised by Canadian farmers.

Increased production in hogs can be brought about more quickly than in any other class of live stock, and consequently should receive immediate attention.

Animal production on the farm is desirable because it increases the fertility and crop-raising ability of the soil. Good prices are sure to be obtained for any class of live stock, and farmers will have to sell on account of the inevitable shortage of supply resulting from war conditions in Europe. The conditions should be such as to induce Canadian farmers to increase their live stock production. A little foresight now, with modern methods of feeding, will make increased production easily possible.

The following report comes from the school garden of the Indian Industrial school. From 3 lbs. of seed potatoes received this year from the Lacombe Experimental farm we received 120 lbs. of potatoes.

From a plot 18 feet by 13 feet and at the rate of 640 bushels per acre The largest potato weighs 2 lbs. From the chief plot of the same name size we dug 175 lbs. On a third plot we had 109 lbs. the largest single potato weighing 1½ lbs.—Advocate.

When the war is over and the cost is counted it will be found that more than a million men have gone down to death, a like number will be maimed for life and the loss of property will be beyond calculation. After viewing this appalling sacrifice to the god of war none but the greatest criminals in the world will hinder any effort made to ensure international peace and disarmament—Grain Growers' Guide.

Washington, Sept. 13.—The president has set apart October 4, as a day on which the people of the United States are to pray for the speedy ending of the great European war and the early restoration of peace.

The C.P.R. company has given $100,000 to the Patriotic Fund and the employees have agreed to donate one day's pay for the same purpose and this will be approximately another $100,000.

City planning is not wholly a question of architecture and engineering. It goes more deeply into the lives of the citizens, affecting them in number, one way and to an extent that can be realized only by those who have made a study of the subject.

ing the past week, sessions commencing in the Methodist church on Friday and were continued until Monday afternoon. Delegates were in vince, while the occasion was honored with the presence of Mrs. Ada

Mrs. Reeves, Lacombe.
Mrs. Frances, Wetaskiwin.

Mrs. Hook, Wetaskiwin.
Mrs. Millin, Wetaskiwin.

Friday morning's opening session was devoted to responses "Why I believe our province should go dry," the report of the executive committee, the appointment of committees, and the receiving and consideration of the reports of the superintendents of departments.

The principal business of Friday afternoon's session was the president address, and the receiving and consideration of the reports of the corresponding secretary and treasurer.
Mrs. McKinley, in her president's report, said in part as follows: "For the first time in history we meet under the shadow of a great war cloud." Our hearts go out to those who battle with us, to our sisters in the home over the seas where the full meaning of war, with its awful destruction of life and property is all too well understood, and to those homes of our own land who have given of their treasures to make up the Canadian contingent. We refuse to believe that our peace propaganda has been in vain, though the present situation may reveal its weakness. We must not forget that we are pressing on to the front at home, nor lose sight of the fact that after the war is over, we will have great problems to face, and neglect of duty will only intensify the difficulty of handling them.

An enemy has entrenched itself in our land, demoralizing the political, social, domestic and commercial life, and threatening to overthrow us. Homes are being destroyed and thousands of lives are being sacrificed to him. The past year has witnessed some of the most important engagements of the world has ever known, but the whole outlook was never more encouraging.
The enemy is retreating. The army of righteousness has made marvellous progress. Fighting is hard but victory is sure.

A discussion then took place on "How my department can help in the prohibition campaign." Papers were read on "Parlor Meetings," Sunday School Work, "Systematic Giving," "Medical Contests," and a "Press Work." Miss Campbell gave a report of the Literary department. Mrs. Torrance, Mrs. Crane and Miss Chandler rendered a vocal trio.
The meeting concluded with a thoughtful address by Mrs. Unruh on "Posters and how to use them."

An informal banquet was tendered the delegates at the Empire Tavern.
Before addresses were delivered Mrs.
McKinley, Mrs. Unruh, and several of the Wetaskiwin gentlemen present.
At the Friday evening meeting, Major Ellis gave a forcible welcome to the city; Rev. C. B. A. Pocock welcomed the delegates on behalf of the churches; Mrs. Crosby extended the welcome from the schools; and Mrs.
J. H. Knight welcomed the visitors on behalf of the local union.

Grace Boyd, of Calgary, responded Ramsey, to come to the platform a very clever and impressive address, while she painted the coveted trophy One of the features of the evening was the making of Mrs. Knight, the president of the local union, a life member. Mrs. Unruh gave a very interesting address on "Woman's Franchise in Oregon," and pointed out very lucidly the influence the women of that state now possessed and the excellent reform work they were accomplishing.

The principal business on Saturday morning was the receiving of reports from the "flowers, fruits, defilees," purity and Mother's meetings, "An-tismatics," "Lumber, traps and mines," "Exhibitions and fairs," departments of the society and the election of officers, which resulted as follows, all the officers being re-elected:

Prres.—Mrs. L. C. McKinley, Clare-holm.
Vice.—Mrs. M. F. Langford, Calgary.
Cor. Sec.—Mrs. I. G. D. Burbeck, Edmonton.
Rec. Sec.—Mrs. R. H. Kent, Medicine Hat.
Treas.—Mrs. C. G. Craig, Olds.
Y.—Sec.—Miss Clara Lockrem, Calgary.
L.L.L. Sec.—Mrs. Grace Boyd, Calgary.

The reports of the districts, and the reports of the "Legislation and petition," "Scientific Temperance Instruction," and "Franchise" departments and the report of the "Y" secretary were very interesting on Saturday afternoon. The meeting concluded with an address "The value of the young woman to the society," by Mrs. Unruh.

On Sunday morning Mrs. Unruh delivered an address on "Waste Slavery" in the Methodist church, and Mrs. McKinley spoke on Temperance in the province in the Presbyterian church. In the evening a mass meeting was held in the Angus Theatre which was crowded to the doors when educative addresses were delivered by Mrs. Unruh, Mrs. McKinley and others.

At the Monday morning session, Mrs. McKinley reported on the work of the White Ribbon Brigade.
Mrs. Wood gave a paper on "Evangelistic Work." The question box conducted by Mrs. Unruh was very interesting.

On Monday afternoon the feature was a model L.T.L. conducted by Mrs. Boyd, who also gave her report as L.T.L. secretary. A number of resolutions were passed. Mrs.
Boyer sang a solo, which was every resolution were passed. The next convention will be at Medicine Hat.
After reading the journal, a most interesting and successful convention was brought to a close.

SACRED HEART SCHOOL

FIELD DAY

On Wednesday last, we, the pupils of the Sacred Heart School, were taken to Pipestone Creek for our Field Day and a grand picnic organized by Rev. Father Walrave, and the good Sisters, our teachers.

The happy crowd left at nine o'clock a.m. in autos, buggies and a day rack kindly lent by relatives and friends.

Oh, what a joyous day
When Summer's best of beauty And Autumn's best of cheer

After rambling in the woods and wading in the clear warm water we were ready to do honor to our appetizing lunch baskets. In the afternoon we had races of all kinds the winners of which received beautiful prizes from Rev. Fr. Walrave.

A thing we also greatly enjoyed was to have our pictures taken in the brook and on the bridge. At 3.30 o'clock we had to return after having spent a most pleasant day.

Hearty thanks to our kind Father our devoted teachers our school Trusttees, to whom we are in debt, for the holiday, and to all those who contributed to make it a happy and enjoyable one.

seemed to help me while I was taking it.
I got so bad at last that it was not heard of Milburn's Heart and Nerve
